Christine Poulin

Christine Poulin is a French Canadian born painter currently residing in Vancouver, B.C. Christine's affinity for exploring the nature and essence of human consciousness through her painting is the spirit of her artwork. Utilizing a unique free hand technique that combines acrylic paint, relief, texture and reflective light makes Christine's pieces a one of a kind experience that can only be truly appreciated when one stands in front and feels the beckoning energy that is absolutely mesmerizing. Reflecting the beauty and journey of the human soul in all its many forms is the core purpose and reason why Christine Poulin is compelled to walk the wondrous and rewarding path of an artist. Bon Voyage.
