Linzy Arnott

Biography

Linzy was born on Vancouver Island British Columbia in 1987. At 15 her work was displayed in the Canadian Children's Museum in Quebec after she placed first for British Columbia in a nationwide art competition. Linzy was awarded a full scholarship to The Art Institute of Vancouver to study Graphic Design. Afterward she studied at Emily Carr Institute of Art and Design for painting. After experimenting in many different art forms Linzy found her true love in acrylics and textural mediums.

Linzy's work is deeply influenced by her life experiences and the details found in her surroundings. Her vast pallet of inspiration comes from the places she explores, from rainy seascapes to the texture of rust infected architecture, places where Linzy finds unspeakable beauty. She creates with emotion, drawing on memories and experiences to convey mood and feeling into her pieces. With acrylic as her base Linzy creates with mediums including liquid leaf, metallics, gold leaf and varnishes.

Linzy is now living her childhood dream with her artwork represented in galleries in Vancouver, Alberta and New York City.
